Figure S1 Neutrality tests for examining the F_{ST} distribution of microsatellite loci by the BayeScan approach.

The analysis shows that none of the remained alleles have extremely high (positive outlier) or low (negative outlier) F_{ST}, suggesting all alleles used in identifying species O. longilobus and O. taihangensis are neutral.