

Supplementary figure 2: quantitative immunohistochemistry using digital image analysis in cohort B. Intratumoural cell densities were determined in several (4-6) large circular areas containing viable tumorous tissue (blue circles). The peritumoural cell densities were determined in four high-power fields (0.54mm in diameter) at the tumour-liver interface (green circles).