

Supplementary Information

Title of Manuscript:

Emotion Recognition in Cats

Authors:

Angelo Quaranta *, Serenella d'Ingeo, Rosaria Amoruso and Marcello Siniscalchi

Department of Veterinary Medicine, Animal Physiology and Behavior Unit, University of Bari "Aldo Moro", 70121 Bari, Italy; serenella.dingeo@uniba.it (S.d.); rosy.amoruso@gmail.com (R.A.); marcello.siniscalchi@uniba.it (M.S.)

*Correspondence: angelo.quaranta@uniba.it, Tel.: +39-080-544-3927

Behavioral Category	Scored Behavior
Stress/Anxiety	ears held in tension slightly spatulate tongue tongue way out braced legs tail down-tucked panting salivating look away of avoidance flattended ears head lowered paw lifted lowering of the body posture vocalization shaking of the body running away hiding freezing seeking attention from the owner head turn turn away

Supplementary Table 1. List of behaviors scored according to the Stress/Anxiety category [1].

References

1. Bradshaw, J.W. The Behaviour of the Domestic Cat; Cabi: Wallingford, Oxfordshire, UK, 2012. ISBN 1845939921.