

AB

(A) The result is the percentage of students who have ever attended online study or not in female and male group, respectively. (B) The question is “Why don’t you want to become a pathologist?”. The result is the percentage of students who chose the specific option to the total number of female and male group, respectively.