

Cognitive impairment was considered present for the following conditions;

- Drugs/alcohol with clear impact
- Head trauma with signs of concussion
- Severe psychiatric disorder, e.g. psychosis
- Neuropsychiatric functional impairment

Lacking decision-making ability;

- GCS <15, disorientated, cannot account for what has happened or follow instructions.

Is there a history suggestive of acute illness or acute deterioration of chronic disease?

- Affected vital signs >Green, or exclusion criteria >Yellow (>Green for children <18 years)
- Pain VAS >3
- Fever >38,5°C and decreased general condition.
- Suicidal

Required during transport;

- drug administration is needed
- monitoring of vital signs is needed
- medical or nursing care is needed

The ambulance nurse/s feels uncertainty performing the decision to non-convey the patient.