Autism & Bilingualism Census
ABC - Autism and Bilingualism Census
Welcome!
Welcome to the ABC! You are invited to participate in a web-based online survey for people on the autism spectrum. This survey is the first step of a research project exploring bilingualism in autism, conducted by <input type="text"/> at the University of <input type="text"/>. For more information, please visit /">http://www.<input type="text"/>. While the word "Bilingualism" is in the very title of this survey, you don't have to be bilingual to participate! Whether you know 1, 2, 3, or even more languages, we welcome you all to our survey! With the ABC we want to compare the lifestyles of autistic people who know several languages with the lifestyles of autistic people who know one language. This is why you can take part in our survey even if you are not bilingual! If you have questions about the study, please feel free to contact me at <input type="text"/>.

Information and consent

Study title: Autism and Bilingualism Census

Principal Investigator: [redacted]

Researcher collecting current data: [redacted]

Nature of the study. You are about to participate in a study which involves answering questions about you and your language experience. Your responses will be collected online on SurveyMonkey.com. Filling in the survey should take you about 15 minutes, plus 3 minutes per language if you know more than 2 languages (for example, it will take you about 18 minutes if you know 3 languages). Full instructions will follow shortly. This study is conducted by [redacted]

Compensation. You will receive no direct benefits from participating in this research study.

Risks and benefits. There are no known risks to participation in this study. The only benefits to you personally are those you draw from making a contribution to our knowledge about language and its use. Your responses will help us assessing the extent of the bilingual population with autism in the United-Kingdom and bring recognition to this population.

Confidentiality. The data we collect will not be associated with your name or with any other personal details that might identify you. Your survey answers will be sent to a link at SurveyMonkey.com where data will be stored in a password protected electronic format. Survey Monkey does not collect identifying information such as your name, email address, or IP address. Therefore, your responses will remain anonymous. No one will be able to identify you or your answers, and no one will know whether or not you participated in the study. At the end of the survey you will be asked if you are interested in participating in the next steps of the research project. If you choose to provide your contact details your survey responses may no longer be anonymous to the researcher. However, no names or identifying information would be included in any publications or presentations based on these data, and your responses to this survey will remain confidential.

Voluntary participation and right to withdraw. Your participation is voluntary, and you may withdraw from the study at any time and for any reason. Because data are collected anonymously they cannot be withdrawn after submission.

Contact information. This research is being conducted by the above-listed researchers at the [redacted]. For questions or to report a research-related problem, please contact [redacted], or [redacted]. Contact [redacted] if you have concerns regarding your rights as a participant in the research.

If you have any questions about what you've just read, please contact the researchers before continuing.

Thank you for your help!

By completing this survey, you consent to the following:

1. I agree that the anonymized data I produce may be kept permanently in and used for the specific research project which made them.
2. I agree that the anonymized data I produce may be used by the above-named researchers, as well as by other qualified researchers, for teaching or research purposes, and in professional presentations and publications.
3. I understand that I have the right to terminate this session at any point. Once my survey has been submitted, I understand that I will not be able to withdraw my data.

* 1. Please confirm your consent by selecting the following statements.

- I have read the above information.
- I am 16 years of age or older.
- I voluntarily agree to participate in this survey.
