

Supplemental Figure 1 legend: Compared to the Chest x-ray taken 3 days before, when dexamethasone had just been introduced for severe COVID-19 pneumonia (A), a new pulmonary radiograph (B) revealed a large excavation of the left upper lobe (dark arrow) caused by fulminant invasive pulmonary aspergillosis.