Attachment 1: Interview guide medicine in the digital age

- What does the advancing technical development mean for your role as a doctor?

- What does the advancing technical development mean for the patient?

- Where do you see challenges and chances of this development?

- How do you position yourself/yourself for the use of technical innovations (AI, robotics, telemedicine) in medical practice?

- How has your interest in the digital transformation of medicine changed through your participation?

- Do you have (ethical/moral) concerns?

- How do you/they judge the amount of time required in terms of learning success.

- What did you like/have in the teaching concept and what did you miss?

- How does the learning success in "Medicine in the digital age" differ from the learning success due to your other learning habits?

- How do you rate your personal learning experience?

- What is your overall conclusion of the course "Medicine in the digital age"?

- Is there anything else you want to say?