

October 30, 2019

Dr. Diane Kelsall and colleagues
Editor-in-Chief
CMAJ Open

RE: Trauma Resident Exposure in Canada and Operative Numbers (TraumaRECON): a study protocol for a national multicentre study of operative, non-operative, and structured educational exposures in Canada

Dear Dr. Diane Kelsall and colleagues,

The following is our reporting guideline checklist (relevant recommendations as per SPIRIT 2013 Checklist):

Administrative information

Title: page 1
Funding and financial declarations: page 1
Author roles and responsibilities: page 1

Introduction

Background and rationale: page 3
Objectives: page 3

Methods: Participants, interventions, and outcomes

Trial design: page 3
Study setting: page 3
Eligibility criteria: pages 3-4
Participant timeline: page 4
Sample size: page 5
Recruitment: page 3

Methods: Data collection, management, and analysis

Data collection methods: pages 5-7
Data management: pages 7-8
Statistical methods: page 8

Ethics and dissemination

Research ethics approval: page 8
Confidentiality: pages 6-8
Declarations of interests: page 1
Access to data: pages 3-4, 6
Dissemination policy: pages 4, 6

Yours Sincerely,

Timothy J. Rice, MD FRCSC

Correspondence to:
Dr. Tim Rice
Hamilton General Hospital
6 North Wing, Room 615
Hamilton Ontario L8L 2X2
CANADA
Office: +1 (905) 521-2100 ext.44520
Fax: +1 (905) 577-1486
Email: ricet@hhsc.ca