Using the resident register based on governmental census, one household member aged 18 to 69 years was randomly selected from each household.
(1,927households)

Exclude those who are not in the condition of the study

Invitation letters were distributed to sampled household members.
(1,772 households)

One member of one household participated in this study.
(n=1,014)

Excluded respondents who did not answer necessary items of this analysis

Analysis
(n=928)

Study population