

Figure S1

Figure S1. Genome regions containing putative prophages-like sequences and IS elements placed alongside the virulence factors. Different gene names are reported near to each genomic region. Each arrow indicates a gene and the different colors indicate the function of the gene product.