Figure S1. Boxplot showing the six main bacterial and archaeal phyla detected in the different equine types. The minor phyla (<1%) are grouped as 'Other'. Boxes show the 25th and 75th percentiles with the median represented by a horizontal line. Whiskers show the data range with the exception of any outliers, which are indicated as data points.