

Supplemental Digital Content 3

Supplemental Figure

Supplemental Figure: Comparison of responses by gender to the needs-assessment survey question “sexual assault cases in the emergency department take time away from more critical patients,” $p < 0.01$

The statistical significance of the difference between the group distributions was determined using the Wilcoxon Rank-Sum test. Statistical significance was set a priori as a two-tailed p -value of < 0.05 .