

Figure S1: Representative images of double-immunofluorescence staining of liver sections. α -SMA is considered a marker of activated HSCs. 40 mg/kg L-THP suppressed the protein expressions of Beclin1 and LC3 in activated HSCs (original magnification: $\times 400$).