ON-LINE FIG 1. Data projected onto the plane defined by the linear discriminant components. Each ellipse represents a study group, where the center indicates between-variances, while the area is proportional to the within-variances.