

Supplementary figure S1. Representative pictures of the scratch assay. Cells were treated with test substances for 12h in culture medium containing 10% FBS. Then, a linear scratch was made in the cell monolayer with a plastic pipette tip and medium with 1% FBS and test molecules was added. Pictures were taken immediately (T0) and every 12h for two days.