

Supplemental Figure S3 - Box and whiskers plot displaying resting serum bile acid concentrations (Y-axis, in $\mu\text{mol/L}$) in dogs with nonspecific reactive hepatitis measured using the three different reagents, Dialab (1), Randox (2) and Sentinel (3). The horizontal black line in the boxes represents the median serum bile acid concentrations. RH, nonspecific reactive hepatitis.