

Data Sharing Statement

Xiang. Efficacy of Smartphone Active and Passive Virtual Reality Distraction vs Standard Care on Burn Pain Among Pediatric Patients. JAMA Netw Open. Published June 21, 2021. doi:10.1001/jamanetworkopen.2021.12082

Data

Data available: Yes

Data types: Deidentified participant data

How to access data: Patient data are not allowed by our institute (Nationwide Children's Hospital) to share. De-identified data may be available but our legal department must be involved in the negotiation with the requester. Email: xiang.30@osu.edu

When available: With publication

Supporting Documents

Document types: None

Additional Information

Who can access the data: Researchers whose proposed use of the data has been approved, and a data use agreement has been negotiated with legal department of Nationwide Children's Hospital.

Types of analyses: For any purpose or for a specified purpose.

Mechanisms of data availability: After approval of a proposal.