Supplemental Figure 1. Relationship between pairwise overlap of aligned positions and relative bit scores of potential paralogs. Red dots correspond to cases with both low overlap and low sequence identity, indicating the likeliest fragmented gene calls.