

Appendix 4: Results of fifth-year medical students' placement of PIV during OSCE 2. The items were ordered by amount of discrepancy between OSCE 1 and OSCE 2. White columns demonstrate the percentage of medical students performing the task correctly, while black columns show the ratio of students executing the task incorrectly. The frequency of medical students performing a task partially correct is represented by the grey columns.