

Figure S1. Bland-Altman plots of CID parameters showing the agreement between two tests in the same subject. The area between the dotted lines indicates the 95% limits of agreement on the test-retest difference. The blue solid line indicates the mean difference between test-retest CID measurements.