

Figure S3 Histograms of ETAs with corresponding density lines (black). The solid lines represent estimates originating from rich data and the dashed lines represent sparse data. The red line is the distribution given by the model estimated omega.

