

Table 2. Statistical description of the public's states and perceptions related to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Question	severity / Frequency (n/%)
	Not at all (value=1)	a little (value=2)	Moderate (value=3)	largely (value=4)	entirely (value=5)
The extent to which your mental state was affected by the past COVID-19 epidemic?	376/15.67%	1147/47.81%	578/24.09%	251/10.46%	47/1.96%
The extent to which your work and life were affected by the past COVID-19 epidemic?	304/12.67%	922/38.43%	712/29.68%	378/15.76%	83/3.46%
How often you still following the reports related to the epidemic?	72/3%	783/32.64%	460/19.17%	750/31.26%	334/13.92%
How often you insist on wearing a mask seriously except the places or occasions where it is required?	284/11.84%	535/22.30%	414/17.26%	594/24.76%	572/23.84%
What do you think is the likelihood of a secondary large-scale outbreak in China? (Question 1)	430/17.92%	1343/55.98%	449/18.72%	135/5.63%	42/1.75%
If COVID-19 second outbreak, how much confidence do you have in government's ability to deal with the epidemic? (Question 2)	8/0.33%	58/2.42%	98/4.09%	588/24.51%	1647/68.65%
If COVID-19 second outbreak, how much confidence do you have in your ability to deal with the economic, work and life stress caused by the outbreak?、	91/3.79%	434/18.09%	599/24.97%	651/27.14%	624/26.01%
If COVID-19 second outbreak, and based on mass vaccination, do you think it's necessary to follow the existing, standard public health measures?	87/3.63%	310/12.92%	476/19.84%	722/30.10%	804/33.51%
If there is a confirmed COVID-19 case in your city, the degree to which you feel anxious, nervous, worried, or afraid?	426/17.76%	969/40.39%	756/31.51%	185/7.71%	63/2.63%
If COVID-19 second outbreak, will you be as anxious, nervous, worried, scared, and fearful as you were before?	658/27.43%	1105/46.06%	443/18.47%	143/5.96%	50/2.08%