

- For patients with opioid use disorder – addiction medicine consultation offered?
- Yes – patient accepted addiction medicine consult
 - No – patient declined offer of addiction medicine consultation

Injection drug use is a risk factor for communicable diseases - please order the following screening labs:

Testing needed this admission

HIV	<input type="checkbox"/> HIV p24 Ag & 1/2 Ab	<input type="checkbox"/> HIV RNA
Hepatitis A immunity	<input type="checkbox"/> Hepatitis A IgG
Hepatitis B screening	<input type="checkbox"/> Hep B Surface Ag	<input type="checkbox"/> Hep B core Ab <input type="checkbox"/> Hep B surface Ab
Hepatitis C screening	<input type="checkbox"/> Hep C Ab	<input type="checkbox"/> Hep C RNA
Syphilis	<input type="checkbox"/> RPR
Gonorrhea/Chlamydia	<input type="checkbox"/> G/C urine nucleic acid amplification test
Latent TB Testing	<input type="checkbox"/> Interferon Gamma Release Assay
Pregnancy Testing	<input type="checkbox"/> Urine beta HCG

Immunizations needed this admission:

- Hepatitis A vaccine
- Hepatitis B vaccine
- Combined Hepatitis A and Hepatitis B vaccine
- Tetanus booster

Harm reduction was discussed with patient during the visit including avoiding introduction of saliva into injecting process, cleaning injection sites, use of clean equipment and locations of nearest syringe exchange facilities.