Dear all,

Thank you for your contribution to our joint manuscript CDDIS-21-1546R.

There is a request from the journal Cell Death & Disease for collecting a 'Request Agreement' from all co-authors of this manuscript CDDIS-21-1546R.

Please find in attachment, the final version of all the manuscript files (including all changes; additions and deletions) and please make sure to reply to this email as a confirmation if you agree to these changes.

All replies thus received from all the co-authors will be combined in one document and will be submitted to the journal.

Looking forward to your response.

With best regards,
Soumya

Hi Soumya,

this does not include the Editorial changes, isn't it?

If it is the same Version I read last time, than I agree with it.

Let me know when you have the Editorial proofs.

Hi Vali,

You are correct, it does not include the editorial changes. It is the same final version from last time. They just want a written approval from all the co-authors. Could you please reply to that email again for them? Sure! I will update you with the Editorial proofs as soon as I receive them.

With best regards,
Soumya

Hi Vali,

I am sorry for the misunderstanding. By 'that email' I meant the email that I sent around (below). If you could please reply to that, I could make a document out of all the email responses from all the co-authors and send it to the journal as a 'Request Agreement'. I am hoping that they will send us the Editorial proofs after that.

Dear all,

Thank you for your contribution to our joint manuscript CDDIS-21-1546R.
There is a request from the journal Cell Death & Disease for collecting a 'Request Agreement' from all co-authors of this manuscript CDDIS-21-1546R.

Please find in attachment, the final version of all the manuscript files (including all changes; additions and deletions) and please make sure to reply to this email as a confirmation if you agree to these changes.

All replies thus received from all the co-authors will be combined in one document and will be submitted to the journal.

Looking forward to your response.
