

Abstract

- Methods must describe: the type of study design.

Methods

- Data analysis: it is necessary to describe, as well as the association measures which were used, the statistical tests and the level of significance considered.