Appendix Figure 1. Distribution of Overlap Weighting Variables. Patient and hospital level factors were examined between treatment groups and overlap weighting methodology applied to balance groups on these covariates. Final balance reveals no standardized mean difference across covariates. A standardized mean difference of 0.1 is denoted here to allow the reader to visualize a goal standardized mean difference of less than 0.1 after overlap weighting.