

Fig. S3. Protein levels of AR in cytosol and nucleus. LNCaP cells were lysed after 24 h treatment with SAL and DMSO and separated into cytosolic and nuclear protein fractions. Western blot was performed to analyze AR levels. Values of control samples were set arbitrarily as 1. Quantification of bands was performed by LabImage D1 normalized to the loading control β -Actin.