

Supplementary Figure 2: Comparison of trends in the unconditional probability of death from 30 to 69 years of age for the four main non-communicable diseases (red line) and all non-communicable diseases (blue line).