

Figure S1. Genome-wide association study of Alzheimer's disease in the Japanese population. The association was assessed with logistic regression analysis adjusted for sex and age.