

Figure S2: Patient diary. Patients observed their vaccination sites 5 times for up to 12 days after each dose and recorded their observations for each vaccination site separately (4 sites for each dose) in three categories: redness, itchiness, and swelling and at three grading scale: “not at all”, “some”, or “very”. Also, patients recorded if they felt fatigue. Number of injections = number of patients x 4 injections.