She was wearing silver earrings. We first meet her when she is riding in a sweltering taxi cab on leather seats to go get lunch with her friend, Will (who is a black gentleman). Along the way she gets in to a discussion with the taxi driver on what he did for a living. She tells him that she just graduated from culinary school and is looking for a job with no luck. She gets a call from that other guys coworker who offers some mash potatoes and asks for some information. When she gets to the lunch place, they order hot chocolate and cheese cake. Will says that he may have a job for her because he's friends with the manager at this french restaurant where he had a reception once and they are hiring. Karen thanks him. Karen parks her car for two seconds to run some errands and when she comes back, it has been towed. She runs down to the tow place and after waiting in this really long annoying line, they finally open up a second station and she tells the attendant that her car is a black honda and can they please hurry up? The attendant says that the car blew up and so fill out this paperwork. She catches a bus to the restaurant and arrives late. After chatting with the manager, she sees her friend from yoga sitting at the restaurant table oh and before that in the lunch place she sees her neighbor beatrice look really sad and beatrice tells her that she had to move out because her girlfriend got a dog with a pink bow and if she knows any single room apartments. But anyway at the french place karen sees her friend alone and finds out that she was stood up on a date. The guy with long hair and leather jacket walks in and he gets slapped by yoga friend, sandra mayes. so then the manager says that renee is ready to meet with chef renne that is is ready to meet with her so she heads down to the kitchen and chef renee is so mad that she says how dare you walk in late to my kitchen! and Karen says that her car blew up but renee doesn't care, so Karen flips her the finger and walks out and is it here that she sees sandra? I'm not sure. and I think that's it no happy ending
