

Supplementary Materials

Figure S1. Median Nerve Stimulation Protocol. (Left): Stimulation contacts were placed on the participant's skin surface to administer subthreshold 15 Hz electrical stimulation to the right median nerve (i.e., stim condition). (Right): Stimulation contacts were turned away from the participant's skin surface (i.e., no stim condition) while retaining stimulator-related electrical noise in both runs (i.e., stim and no stim).