Hello,

Thank you again for working with us on this. We will soon upload the required files. Meanwhile, I wanted to respond to your inquiry, "Legend of figures 1 and 2 refer to references 134, 103, 108, 39 and 49 in the text of the manuscript. Please provide permission to reprint or include a statement that permission is not necessary (and why) by email."

Permission is not necessary for either of these figures. Figure 1 is data from the human protein atlas. They give clear citation guidelines here (<https://www.proteinatlas.org/about/licence>) which we have followed.

Figure 2 is a summary of the literature. This is a review article, so it is expected that we summarize the literature. The references given are for the data and studies that support the diagram that we have made. However, we are not showing any data from those papers but rather are summarizing the literature in a graphical format (again, this is a review article so this is expected). We have included the references to make it easier for the reader to find the studies that support this summary.

Best
Jen
