Figure S8. Depiction of the reduced model used to represent protein conformations during the DeepFold folding simulations, including the backbone atoms (N, H, Cα, C, and O) as well as the Cβ atoms and side-chain centers of mass for each amino acid type.