Additional Information

Explanation for why data not available: The rules governing the Medicare dataset prohibit any sharing of the health datasets being used for our epidemiologic research. Restricted by our Data Use Agreement with the U.S. Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services, the Medicare data that support the findings of this study are neither sharable nor publicly available from us. Academic and non-profit researchers who are interested in using Medicare data should contact the US Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services directly to obtain their own datasets upon completion of a Data Use Agreement.
