

Supplementary Figure S6: HeLa cells were grown in poly D-lysine coated coverslip stained with antibodies against Aurora A (red) and γ -tubulin (green) and subjected them to IF staining as described in Materials and Methods. DAPI was used to stain the nucleus.