Appendix 3: Timeline

Key stages in the development and delivery of the multimodal training program	2021
	Ma	March		April		May		June		July		August		September		October
Development of KHS and co-design of digital training program (remote)	Commenced January 2021
KHS and IITT implementation planning (remote)
Australian nurses present to assist with clinical redesign and mentoring
Digital courses sequentially released on KHS
Review tutorials conducted by Australian nurses (in-person)
IITT implemented (and in operation on an ongoing basis)
Post-intervention evaluation data collected																