

Supplementary Text 1. Supplementary methods: Multiple imputation for secondary outcomes.

For secondary outcome measures, sensitivity analyses were performed in which missing outcome data was imputed using predictive mean matching (50 imputations; R package ‘mice’ [1]). The following variables were used in the model for the imputation of missing data: sex, education, baseline outcome score, treatment, and any adverse events (yes or no).