

Data Sharing Statement

Data

Data available: No

Additional Information

Explanation for why data not available: Generally, the Indian Health Service (which is the setting for this study) does not share patient datasets. This is due to mistrust and concern within the population it serves -- about research in general -- which in turn is due to history. A special exemption would need to be granted. At the moment, the IRB has not approved data sharing for this project.